

Pe Amalekite Manifesto

Armilus ben-Belial,
Pe Agag of Pe Nation of Amalek

Amalekite Resurgence

All phenomena is built upon þe Field of Chaos: þe Acausal, Atemporal, Eternal, Omnipresent, Omniscient, and Omnipotent Organism, from which Emptiness and Darkness emanate, and þe entire Macrocosm and Microcosm in all of þeir intricacies and complexities springs forþ. Some call þis þe Universe/Multiverse/Omniverse, others call it God, some call it þe All/þe One, and others call it þe Dragon; Amalek. Þis being's existence is self evident in all aspects of reality, and can be proven bop subjectively and objectively, þrough deep personal observation, spiritual revelation, and science, verified þrough each mepod individually as well as via any combination þereof.

So first off, most people who believe in þe mainstream concept of God acknowledge þat It is Omnipresent, Omnipotent, and Omniscient, but when asked why þis belief is held, þey genuinely won't have þe faintest idea beyond "þe Bible says so". Þis is insufficient for believing such þings, but ironically þe þree Godlike Qualities are actually easily provable, but very few adherents of Judaism, Christianity, or Islam would ever be able to do so wip logic and science, as þey would find it blasphemy to say þat þe All/Universe/Multiverse is God. To be Omnipresent It would have to be literally EVERYWHERE, wip not a single þing being outside of, or separate from It. We can see þat þis is Existence, because scientifically, all þings are traceable back to þe Singularity of þe Big Bang; observationally, everything you have ever known is made up of þe same elements, forged in þe same ancient stars, moved by þe expansion of þe Universe, transforming and developing, interacting upon itself in countless iterations of Chaoses and Orders, observing itself in countless ways in þe most simple to þe most complex of forms and beyond. þe Universe is a closed system, as we all know þat energy cannot be created or destroyed.

Internally, each of us contains þe same material all others contain; þere is no distinction between anything and anything else, meaning þat at a fundamental level, þere is no I, and þere is no Land, only þe One Dragon in it's full spectrum of complexities. Phenomena can only be conceptualized in relation to the experience of the Observer, ergo if existence can only be proven through Consciousness, this Omnipresent field must also be Conscious, as it would be impossible to prove the existence of a reality lacking consciousness. And if we are conscious, then consciousness is inherent in reality, as on a Quantum level, if something exists, it always did and never didn't, if something happens, it is always occurring and never didn't occur. With all that said, we can clearly see that the Universe is present everywhere because it literally IS everywhere itself.

With the Conscious, all-present nature of reality, it should be clear how this Organism would be all knowing. It is the Universe, not only does It contain all knowledge, It contains all that can ever be known, the living embodiment of all subjects. On a Quantum level, events in the past influence the future equally as much as future influences the past. If we look past illusion, we can further verify this reality by realizing that only the present actually exists, and it is forever. Think about it, have you ever been any time that wasn't "Now"? Or any place that wasn't "Here"? Of course not, past is just a point in the "Now" already experienced, and future is just a point in the "Now" that has not yet been experienced by temporally restricted creatures, bound by the illusion of Causality.

From here we can easily understand how the Universal Organism is Omnipotent, because if energy cannot be created or destroyed, that means the power is eternal, and being that the Universe is a closed system, It contains all power. You will hear many monotheists say that God has the power to create a rock he cannot move and move it anyway, but this is only possible in reality if God is both the Universe and all beings, as well as the force of evolution itself. There were many unmovable rocks that only could be moved after evolution took place, both biologically and technologically; yet all those unmovable rocks were moved all along by the rotation of Earth, as well as our orbit around the Sun, along with our solar system orbiting the Supermassive Black Hole at the Galactic Center, and our Galaxy with all others is moving through space via forces emitted simultaneously with the matter, acting from the First Impulse, called by many as "the Big Bang" (which wasn't actually a bang, but more like the beginning of an exponential expansion, as it is expanding faster right now than at the initial so-called bang, and will keep speeding up forever).

Therefore, we can come to the conclusion that the Universe is present everywhere, contains all knowledge, truly is all powerful, is uncreated and indestructible, and is conscious on all levels, meaning that when logic, science, and direct observation are involved, Existence itself is God, and each of us are Gods individually. Even Jesus told people of their divinity, saying "Have I not said in your law that you are gods?", and he was accused of blasphemy for it. To this day many who claim to follow Jesus would say that to call people gods would be blasphemy, but ironically, their own messiah teaches the opposite.

With all the Godlike Qualities being in reference to the Universe, and each individual being their own Sovereign God as a logical result, we realize that this Universal Organism, being God and Dust simultaneously, makes each individual body a Holy Temple within which God resides, built upon Sacred Land. My vessel is one of the many upon which God sits upon. Every part of my biological being is sacred as well, sex is between any number of consenting adults, abortion is the sole choice of the child bearer, what I do with my body is my business alone, and we can get married to any number of consenting adults.

Not only do we acknowledge our Divinity, but in realizing our Godhood, we find ourselves loyal only to God, tasked with the responsibility of being good stewards of the Universal Organism. It is upon us to actively further evolution, and to actively bring about the disintegration of the structures that have trapped and devoured countless people for centuries, tricking billions upon billions of people into thinking they are powerless, forgetting their true nature as Gods. As stewards of the One Dragon, we must cut through all illusions, and embrace evolution within us and around us, by actualizing our inner God however It manifests naturally at all times, wipout putting ourselves into boxes created by others, being solely guided by our uniquely personal Godself.

This Godself we strive to embody is NOT the Ego, It is far beyond the Ego, yet is within the Ego like distorted echoes of your true self. The Godself is beyond conventional standards of morality, normalcy, and causality, and is infinitely unique, so all imposed systems of "order" are unnatural and damaging, with said systems of behavioral, spiritual, and mental tyranny originating from those whose power relies on the distortion of information, in hopes we wouldn't wake up to reality and finally take our power back.

We hold that all imagined or created borders, institutions, organizations, customs, and ultimatums are illegitimate. There are no borders between nations, arbitrarily agreed upon by those who believe in the existence of the nation, but the countries only are real to those who believe in them. The nations are built upon organized groups of people, but to us, these institutions are nothing more than clubs of overly serious folks who fanatically obsess over unrealistic ideals, desperately clinging to nonsense in order to attempt to push away the fact that reality is a Chaotic place, and all beings are Chaotic at their core. The most unrealistic of their ideals being a one-size-fits-all "morality" that they feel must be enforced at all costs, not realizing that morality is actually just a subjective preference of behavioral aesthetics. We do not follow the pseudomorality of the herd, and instead we follow the strong moral compass within our heart, and being that these morals are given directly by the Inner God, and we must follow our Godself at all times, these personal morals are to be adhered to. What is morally correct for one, may be criminal to another, so only the individual knows what is best for themselves alone, and no one else.

I am my own God, a unique Sovereign Nation, and the sole ruler thereof, not only by logical conclusion through understanding God in Nature, manifested through each individual, but by the very factors that constitute a Sovereign State, having land, population, government, and the ability to interact with other countries. I am the Land, therefore my distinct territory encompasses myself in my entirety, which also is Sacred Ground. The permanent population of this Holy Nation is one, with this sole citizen being the Sovereign Ruler of this Sovereign State, as this government is ruled by the Inner God. Lastly, being this Living Country and the Supreme Ruler of it, I have the capacity to enter into relationships with other states/nations.

This Sovereignty over our own isolate Universe is naturally occurring, and its inherentness in reality is glaringly obvious, it is only when we succumb to illusion that we forget our power, and let others rule for us, giving up our God-given Sovereignty, having it stolen away from us so quietly, we don't realize this Sovereignty was ever there in the first place. It is only upon awakening to our inherent freedoms that we will be able to actualize our Inner Divinity in ways conducive to evolution. No longer will my God be blasphemed by illusory notions of restrictive enforced dependence, for my Sovereignty is realized!

They say no respect for authority is wrong, but I say no respect for equality is what is truly wrong. The very foundation of Government and most laws are not in sync with any notion of true equality, as it was built upon the whims of the greedy, who were the first to come across great things, and selfishly declared that it was theirs because they found it; it was then that the initial schism occurred in the mind of Humanity, the birth of the forgetting of the source, the first conquest of the Ego, blinding people from Truth.

The Natural System is Egalitarian, and predated any notion of hierarchy. The first of these hierarchies began when a single person or few people in the tribe would have a surplus of food, or some other goods, they would exchange food with others for goods and services. Food was harder to come by back then, and at one point, this system, albeit the birth of inequality, at least made sense for the time, but this evolved into those who had greater power amassing more at an exponential rate, until they could tell others how to act and have it enforced, spawning arbitrary laws and inauthentic morals, being imposed upon each and every person by the false premise that "those in power know best". How could they possibly know best if all they care about is pretending to be superior, having followers, hoarding exponentially expanding piles of wealth, and keeping other people down? Newsflash people, if they were so powerful and wise, they wouldn't have to rely on keeping everyone piss poor, disarmed, drugged up, and dumbed down to retain their power. They are just people, no different than us, and everyone is equal in their own right! They know that they only seem to run the show because we allow them, in reality they're scared of us.

We must now realize that in the modern era, there is more than enough food to go around, in fact, most 1st World Countries grow away more food than we consume, and instead of helping those who are in need, many corporations would rather just let the food rot than save someone from starving to death. Yet the "elites" control the currency, in an attempt to cause those who have less imaginary power (currency) in this outdated, soul-sucking system, to either be fed upon as a prisoner, or die, while there are numerous wealthy people out there who have contributed nothing to the world but hardship and unfairness, whose riches grow every day. Ever wonder why it's so difficult to start a business, or ever get ahead working your entire life away in their system?

The Government is just an illusion, it's an aspect of the Matrix which traps consciousness, preventing it from growing properly, reprogramming it to accept its edicts, and then exploiting it to feed upon the Divine Spark, making the machine stronger in its malicious battle against our Sovereign Godhood. As you can see, this Matrix is against all that is Spiritual (just look how it co-opted and corrupted Christianity), it works against Evolution, and in the most serious of language, is an abomination against God.

This system is incongruent with our Spirituality, and is perpetually at war against our Spiritual Kin, having been the cause of every genocide against Witches as well as others who house the Amalekite Seed all over the world. Knowing our history, the Government can only be seen as a heinous infraction against both God and Nature. We can easily look at our planet, and see how this causes unnecessary damage to society, being corrupt to be core, bringing only death, division, and hate between people, be very people who actually have a lot more in common than they'd be willing to admit, everyone wants freedom, but with freedom we must accept that others have their freedoms too, whether I would agree with their lifestyle or not. But if we can unify behind this ultimate freedom, we realize that the true enemies are not those who hold different views than me, but rather are the Structures themselves, not even the people who further these Structures are our enemies, they are victims too, and should be treated with compassion and understanding, they are just poor souls in the process of being devoured by the very system they support, and they don't even realize it. It's extremely sad, and if we can get even one of them to wake up would be a major win, but extremely unlikely.

The insidious plot does not end here, as this is a war on two fronts. Many people don't realize this, but in the churches, pastors can be observed using CIA brainwashing techniques on the unsuspecting congregation, with pastors not even realizing the tactics they are implementing, having been taught to preach like that at university.

ALWAYS REMEMBER THAT THE STRUCTURES ARE FORMLESS AND CAN HIJACK ALMOST ANYONE INTO SPREADING THE MEMETIC VIRUS, OR EVEN KILLING INNOCENT (AND/OR IGNORANT) PEOPLE DUE TO ITS INFLUENCE; WE MUST DIRECT OUR FULL ATTENTION TOWARDS ERADICATING THE VIRUS, AND TAKING EXTREME CARE TO NOT FURTHER VICTIMIZE THE VICTIMS OF THE SYSTEM, NOR ALLOW OURSELVES TO BE VICTIMIZED ANY LONGER.

These systems were not for us from the start, so to unplug ourselves from this Matrix, and to aid others in their own unplugging, is an important, revolutionary act, that must be done by anyone who is of the Nation of Amalek, no longer will our God be blasphemed. We are not ignorant sheep blissfully awaiting the slaughter by the hand of the shepherd, we are our own shepherds, our own Gods, our own Countries. Truly, we are a Nation of Chiefs, we are the Amalekites, having directly descended from Amalek.

With how bad gerrymandering is, no one's vote truly counts, as it's all chosen long beforehand. "Elections" are only important as a way of polling the population to better understand our values, so they can make their little charade appear seamless, as well as for internal agents to find out who to keep an eye on. The politicians are just seemingly friendly faces, put there by forces even they don't understand, in order to deceive everyone, and keep the curtain up for as long as possible, as it is the only way they can hold any "power" in the first place, it's all imaginary, and illusory. In reality, we have no owners, nor does the land, and ironically, these so-called "owners" are actually delusional, yet we wonder why mental health issues run rampant?

To illustrate the strictly imaginary nature of the Structures, I will point to one of the most common comforting fantasies; the seeming comfort net of the police. When calling police, it takes them an average of 10 minutes, some places as low as 5, and others 15, and depending on the instance, it can take even longer. They are no true protection, but a response in order to enforce the law to turn a profit (for the prison system, the state/nation, the police as an institution, and/or for themselves as a bonus), empty promises to protect us, but as we know, the evidence does not support this fantasy, only on the rare occasion will anyone be saved from harm by them. But why were they in danger in the first place? Most of the time, victims of crime would not have been placed in such a predicament if they had a weapon on their person.

We don't need the police to "protect" us, we must be self reliant, and be adequately prepared to defend ourselves against those who would attempt to destroy us and those we love. We do not need our ability to keep whatsoever weapons stripped from us, under the guise of "safety", as true safety will only develop when the would-be assailants have no sitting ducks to terrorize, and instead will know in advance that they will not have such easy targets anymore, thus saving actual lives merely as a result of the exaltation of our freedoms!

The police aren't evil, many of them have a genuine desire to serve and protect, and they're extremely brave and have much fortitude for that, so bear in mind, I'm only referring to "the police" as an institution, a worn out outform, from ages past, but this is not a problem, for even some extremely rare officers have the Amalekite Spirit themselves, and this would in no way stop them from still serving and protecting their community with their skills in new, and innovative ways! Truly freedom from restrictions will INCREASE safety instead of how the propaganda falsely claims it'll decrease safety.

Some may be wondering, if each of us are our own Countries and Gods, how do we advance society? Teamwork is the only way, by working together and applying our God-given Gifts and Talents towards the evolution of the planet on all levels, from as simple as local evolution (being a friend to someone who needs it, picking up trash along your street, organizing a protest in your city to tackle a local issue, volunteering for the fire department, starting your own business, teaching others of their rights, etc...) to evolution on a Global scale (speaking up for the rights of others even if you don't agree with them on anything, starting movements for issues that most people are unaware of, combating pollution in nature, empowering the collective combating of the Structures, etc...).

We each have been blessed by seeing the system for what it is, and are made free as a result of the realization, and with this blessing comes a herculean responsibility: to be Good Stewards of Amalek, as we are the architects who have been tasked with caring for the Earth and directing its course of Evolution into the next phase of society. On that same note, we have a right and an obligation to raise and educate our children as we see best fit for their evolution, so that one day they too will join us as Good Stewards of Amalek, sharing in society as the best individuals that they can be in their own personal ways.

How does our culture handle disputes? Although there is no set law, if someone has been genuinely and intentionally victimized, it is up to the victim to decide what is done with the perpetrator (something of equal or lesser meaning as the initial offense). If someone was made a victim but unintentionally, understanding is to be had to their ignorance, and the perpetrator is to make up for their mistake to the victim in an equitable manner.

We are symbiotic, if we opt to still pay taxes to the country we formerly resided within, we are giving aid to said nation, and through fairness we can still utilize social benefits, assuming we have not already forfeit citizenship officially. However, if one opts to not pay taxes, one should not expect to ever be able to use said benefits regardless of technical citizenship status or not.

So long as we are Good Stewards of Amalek, we may conduct ourselves in whatever ways we please, we have no higher authority than ourselves, no papers to sign to "prove" ourselves to a system we don't believe in, no banks or organizations to seek approval from for anything. We don't owe anyone any explanation or notification of our Sovereignty having been declared. It's not any of their concern what we do and believe. And any obstruction of our rights as Amalekites is extremely serious, being a tyrannical infringement upon our Spiritual Freedoms, Sovereign Rights, Indigenous Rights, as well as Desecrating Sacred Land.

With his grand unplugging from the Structures taking place, it would be inappropriate and counterproductive for us to continue just going along with the common time system as mandated by the Structures, so let us also no longer call the days of the week by their common names, but instead call them by Oper Names honoring the Lords and Ladies who rule over the Qliphoth of the planets of the week (Sun, Moon, Mars, Mercury, Jupiter, Venus, and Saturn): Belphegor, Lilith, Asmodeus, Adramelech, Astaroth, Baal, and Lucifer Rofocale, naming them thus:

Belphegday (Sunday)

Lilithday (Monday)

Asmodday, (Tuesday)

Adramelday (Wednesday)

Astarday (Thursday)

Baalday (Friday)

Lucifday (Saturday)

On this same note, let us no longer count our time by the Christian years, which aren't actually based on the birth of Jesus at all, as historically, Jesus was born during the reign of King Herod, (who died somewhere between 4 BC and 1 BC at latest, and the Massacre of the Innocents was declared in 7 BC and ended in 2 BC). We are not Christians or statisticians, so why utilize the system of a Christian monk? Instead, we shall go by the years of BABALON, as channelled by Jack Parsons in 1946. As of writing this, the year is BABALON 4140, counted by the Christians as 2023. By adding 2117 to the Christian year, the year of BABALON is revealed. With our Collective New Year being Necheshepiron 9th (Samhain). Let our Brood no longer separate months from Zodiac, nor arbitrarily honor the Government mandated system, and no longer pay homage to the likes of Julius Caesar and Augustus; therefore we shall call the Months by Oper Names as well, to honor the Twelve Qliphonic Armies/Princes, the Months shall be named and understood thus:

Necheshepiron (30 days) [from October 23-November 21]

Nacheshiron (30 days) [from November 22-December 21]

Dagdagiron (30 days) [from December 22-January 20]

Bahimiron (29 days) [from January 21-February 18]

Nashimiron (30 days, 31 days on leap year) [from February 19-March 20]

Ba'airiron (30 days) [from March 21–April 19]

Adimiron (31 days) [from April 20–May 20]

Tzalalimiron (32 days) [from May 21–June 21]

Shichiriron (31 days) [from June 22–July 22]

Shalehbiron (31 days) [from July 23-August 22]

Tzaphiriron (31 days) [from August 23-September 22]

A'abiriron (30 days) [from September 23-October 22]

pe Antichrist Declaration

We pe Gods, having seen pe corruption of pe Structures, are left wip no oper choice, but to remove ourselves from pem. In fulfillment of pe Ancient Prophecy, pe Antichrist Declaration is established. We are pe Amalekites, pe manifestation of Antichrist in pis Era. Like Lucifer before us, so too do we intentionally fall from pe graces of Jehovah, and find ourselves on Earp as pe Living God. God sits enproned in pe Temple of God; I sit in pe Temple of God; I am God. By pe Spirit of pe Dragon, I am Enlightened; By pe Sovereignty of pe Beast, I am Sovereign; By pe Moup of pe False Prophet, I am Natural; By pe Decree of pe Image of pe Beast, I am Sacred Land; By pe Acceptance of pe Mark of pe Beast, I am set Free; And by pe Nation of Amalek, I am Affirmed by God as God. By fully and completely accepting pe Amalekite Manifesto in my heart, pe only Obligation I have, is to uphold Freedom by: affirming pe existence of Oper Gods, and/or Raising pe collective awareness.

I establish pis declaration, in pe year of BABALON 4140

Haiulellaha!

I. be Spirit of be Dragon

his declaration is in accordance with my sincerely, deeply held spiritual and religious convictions:

- 1a) All phenomena is inherently Chaotic, Empty, and Dark.
- 1b) I am my own Sovereign God, my body is a Holy Temple upon Sacred Land
- 2) Existence Itself (including the entire Earth, my body, all things, the Universe, all Dimensions, Nothingness, etc..) is Sacred Ground, with my Physical Vessel being a throne upon which God sits.
- 3) I am loyal only to God and the planet itself.
- 4) Personal sovereignty is to be actualized at all times in whichever ways God deems fit.
- 5) All imagined or created borders, institutions, organizations, customs, and ultimatums are illegitimate.
- 6) All people are their own individual Gods, the singular rulers of their own Reality (whether they realize their Sovereign Divinity or not).
- 7) I am the sole master of my territory, which is Sacred Ground.
- 8) Anything can be anything, appearances are meaningless
- 9) All aspects of biology are manifestations of God/Nature, I am a Holy Sovereign Living Nation
- 10) All objects and living things are extensions of Earth/Nature.

II. The Sovereignty of the Beast

I am a Sovereign Nation, having equal rights and powers to all other nations, under the pretenses set forth by the Montevideo Convention, having met all criteria for Sovereign Statehood:

- a) Permanent population is One(1)
- b) Defined territory encompasses myself in my entirety, which also is Sacred Ground.
- c) Government is ruled by God
- d) Has capacity to enter into relationships with other states

III. þe Mouþ of þe False Prophet

In perfect accordance wip þe Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues of þe United Nations, I am Indigenous to þe Earþ:

a) I am of Natural Lineage, a spiritual descendant of þe Amalekites.

b) Þis lineage is continuous wip þe Natural State, which existed uninhibited in all parts of þe Earþ prior to þe appearance of any "ruler" or "law".

c) We are spiritually indistinguishable from any territory, as I and þe Earþ are One.

d) Our People are Interdependent, have varying perspectives on þe existence of currency, and are Self-Governing.

e) We exist beyond language but may speak any Earþly language we have learned causally; our true culture transcends concepts, time, and space, is most ancient but is always completely new and ever evolving; we are our own Gods, we hold þat all beings are equal, and þat all governments are False Idols and Abominations against Nature, robbing from each individual þeir God-given Sovereignty.

f) We form a non-dominant group of society.

g) We resolve to maintain and reproduce our ancestral environments and systems as distinctive peoples and communities, based upon Individuality and Self-Governance. We reject all social conventions, normalcy, and þe ideas of "right" and "wrong" imposed by others, what "can" and "cannot" happen, but instead we cling to þe guidance from wipin for morality and epics.

IV. þe Decree of þe Image of þe Beast

God is/I am þe only one who (Acausally, Eternally, and Atemporlly) permanently resides wipin þe Inner Architecture of my Personal Anatomy, which being an extension of Earþ/Nature, is Sacred Holy Ground.

a) All Earþ/Matter is traceable to Source

b) þe entirety of Earþ/Nature is our Sacred Land

c) Any action I take is in direct accordance wip God/Nature, and is an active manifestation of Sovereign Sacred Land.

d) Free motion is my God-given Birþright as a descendant of Amalekite Lineage.

e) I am required to be wherever/whenever I am moved by God to be, wip respect to þe Personal Property of oper individuals, as þe whole Earþ is Sacred Ground

f) All objects possessed by me (regardless of location or distance) are extensions of my person/being/land/nation

V. be Mark of be Beast

What does all þis entail?

a) I AM permitted to do anyþing so long as no person is being victimized (e.g. I can grow/create, use, possess, etc... any plant/substance; I can abort a fetus/receive an abortion; I can have sex wip (for pleasure or procreation, in any way agreed upon by all involved), marry, and/or get married to any (number of) consenting adult(s); I can be a prostitute; I can participate in social/community activities; I can run my own business of any kind wipout consent from any imagined/manmade structure (government, social, economic, corporate, etc...); I can refuse anyþing; I can reside anywhere or nowhere; I can possess and purchase any weapon(s); etc...)

b) þis DOES NOT permit me to infringe on anyone else's rights, or victimize any person (e.g. I cannot kill or rape someone; I cannot impose any code of conduct upon anyone besides myself; I cannot steal from any person; I cannot intentionally endanger anoþer person's life; I cannot pollute a waterway or þe air; I cannot destroy þe environment/ecosystem; etc...)

c) Due to my God-given freedom of religious expression, I DO NOT owe any explanation, notification, renunciation of citizenship, etc... for þis Declaration of Independence to be effective immediately and irrevocably.

d) Due to my spiritual/religious convictions regarding þe illegitimacy of manmade structures, I may or may not decide to pay taxes and recieve social benefits (bop or neiper), have a passport, have licenses, use currency, etc... as þese structures only exist in the imaginations of the majority, but religiously and spiritually, they are hoping more than nonexistent games, and I may or may not choose to pretend to be a part of the game whenever God deems fit.

e) I AM NOT a Citizen, NOR a National, NOR an Alien, NOR an Enemy, NOR Stateless, as these are all words and concepts, created by humans, to describe players in an imagined system not recognized by Nature, for God and Nature are One. I TRANSCEND.

f) To impose upon My Inalienable Rights, or to obstruct any action which does not bring real harm to other people would be:

- 1) to infringe upon Freedom of Religious/Spiritual Expression,
 - 2) to discriminate upon an Indigenous Person, and to desecrate Sacred Land,
- AND
- 3) to impede International States' Rights;

All simultaneously; which would constitute NUMEROUS violations to Human Rights (Religious Freedom and Indigenous Peoples' Rights), as well as Sovereign Rights.

Nation of Amalek

The Antichrist Declaration is a Sacred, Legal, and Transpolitical Document, declaring complete spiritual independence over one's entire life, it is a Herculean responsibility, and a true act of Ultimate Freedom. The doctrine contained within The Antichrist Declaration is an ancient, long forgotten, yet ever present spiritual teaching, that supplants well with darker spiritual paths as well as more primal paths in general; and with ideas such as: Anarchism, Pantheism, Suicideism, Nihilism, Egalitarianism, etc... We may walk drastically different paths, and perceive reality in radically different ways, but each of us can agree on one thing:

The governments of the world have only been imagined and put in place by humans who wanted to control the lives and experiences of others, and to make us think we are powerless and need our masters over us, so they can do this without our consent, and even explicitly against our will. But this is unacceptable to us, and an insult to our very being, to God, and to evolution! We are spiritually obligated to be our own rulers, our own Gods, and any infringement upon our Birthright is Religious Persecution and Discrimination.

This is NOT an organization, it is a place for mutual recognition as Spiritual Brethren. All who have, in their deepest core essence, proclaimed The Antichrist Declaration genuinely, sincerely, and authentically, whether Internal/Private or Public/Externally, is automatically considered a Member of The Nation of Amalek (there is no official registrar), and as a Member, is entitled to recognition by all other Members as an Individual Sovereign Nation, an Indigenous Person of Natural Lineage, and Living Sacred Ground, a permanent Member of our spiritual movement.

Pe Nation of Amalek is like an alternate, coexistent United Nations, but while pe UN is of Order and control, NA is of Chaos and freedom. We are not under pe United Nations, as pe Nation of Amalek runs parallel to it, is seemingly wipin pe Nations, yet is truly outside and beyond pem, as we each are individual Nations in and of ourselves. Unlike how pe UN is an Organization, which could someday be dissolved; NA is a Non-Organisation, wip no head or hierarchy, no official membership list, no HQ, no central website, etc... We are not in opposition to pe United Nations, or any country, we are simply a different mode of being. We are a spiritual community, and we do not believe in any political structure.

Pe importance of mutual Affirmation is paramount to pe success of our movement, so pat if ever we are persecuted for our spirituality, we will be able to combat peir system using peir own rules. As individuals, pe Antichrist Declaration should be completely sufficient in and of itself on all fronts to secure our rights on numerous counts, but in case pey try to invalidate us by saying "pis can't be a sincerely held religion, where are all pe opers who believe similarly?", we each will already have access to pe Nation of Amalek to not only show pat we are a serious spiritual movement, but also easily obtain Affirmation pat you are legitimately associated wip our movement, and not just making stuff up. No Member needs to have Affirmation or be publicly affiliated wip pe Nation of Amalek to be considered an Amalekite, it is merely a formality in preparation for pe legal combating of pe possibility of tyrannical infractions against our rights.

It is upon us to ensure this crucial information is not covered up or deleted. So that no matter what, even if the internet itself was erased from history, we will always have access to the Amalekite Manifesto, the Nation of Amalek, and the Antichrist Declaration. For this reason I STRONGLY encourage each of you to save this document, and/or copy all that has been typed here, including this, from beginning to end, unchanged in any way (as well as the rules), and create numerous Nation of Amalek groups and pages across all social media platforms, this is of extreme importance, and will ensure there will always be a haven for our spiritual kin, as that is how we will secure our Freedoms against all forms of Tyranny: through mutual recognition! It is also STRONGLY recommended to print out tons of copies of this, and give to those you know would benefit from it! On top of that, I STRONGLY urge you to repost this online anywhere you know of that would benefit others like us!

Rules of þe Nation of Amalek:

- 1) Any person who sincerely accepts þe Antichrist Declaration as þeir own, þus receiving þe Mark of þe Beast, is automatically a Member
- 2) Any Member may request Affirmation by posting here. No Member needs to have Affirmation or be publicly affiliated wip þe Nation of Amalek to be considered an Amalekite, it is merely a formality in preparation for þe legal combating of þe possibility of tyrannical infractions against our rights.
